

The chief local revenues and receipts are from the various cesses upon the land revenue, which are levied chiefly for the construction of local public works and for education, and from tolls on roads and ferries. There is also the pandhari tax in the Central Provinces, and there are some important tolls on canals (Nuddea and Calcutta) in Bengal. The transactions of cantonment funds and port funds, excepting the port trusts of the presidency towns of Bombay and Calcutta, the accounts of which are not on the Government books, are also recorded as local receipts and expenditure. The local cesses or taxes have of late years been reduced in number and simplified, and no fresh cess may now be imposed even by consent, without the permission of the Government of India.

The local revenues and receipts in 1872-73 were last estimated at £3,593,078, the expenditure at £2,967,601, and the closing balance at £2,848,809. The actual accounts show the receipts to have been £3,521,792, the expenditure £3,288,548, and the closing balance £2,202,672.

The local revenues and receipts during 1873-74 were first estimated at £3,638,725, the expenditure at £3,654,873 and the closing balance at £2,832,656. According to the present estimates the revenues and receipts were £3,664,000, the expenditure £3,845,000, and the closing balances £2,021,672.

It is estimated that the local revenues and receipts in 1874-75 will be £3,171,600, the expenditure £3,627,100, and the closing balance £1,566,172.

Thus during the four years ending 1874-75 the local expenditure will, if the present estimates are realised, have exceeded the receipts by £376,291.

Municipal income and expenditure is shown separately for the first time. The figures given under this head do not include the receipts and expenditure of the municipal corporations of the presidency towns, the accounts of which are not recorded in the public books. But the receipts and charges of all other municipalities are shown under this head, excepting those of municipalities in the Bombay Presidency and certain transactions of other municipalities.

The estimates of municipal receipt and expenditure were, in 1872-73, incorporated in the local revenues and receipts and were not shown separately. The actual municipal revenues and receipts in 1872-73 were £784,558 the expenditure £762,836, and the balance at credit at the close of the year £163,399.

The receipts of 1873-74 are estimated at £765,000 the charges at £786,000, and the closing balances at £142,399.

The receipts of 1874-75 are estimated at £723,000, the charges at £781,000, and the closing balances at £84,399.

There were 1,283 municipal towns in British India in 1872-73 with a population of 14,431,168 souls, and, according to the accounts given in the administration reports which include some transactions not upon the Government books, they had a gross income of £1,658,352, of which £1,384,024 consisted of taxes, and the remainder of receipts other than taxes.

WAYS AND MEANS AND CASH BALANCES.

By the regular estimate it was anticipated that the year 1872-73 would close with a cash balance of £22,138,852, of which £2,838,852 would be at the home treasury and £19,300,000 in the Indian treasuries. The actual balances on the 31st March 1873 amounted to £21,786,138, of which £2,998,445 was in the home treasury and £18,787,693 in the Indian treasuries. The closing balances were thus lower by £352,714 than was expected, and this notwithstanding an improvement of £532,308 upon the whole account of revenues and receipts and expenditure, and notwithstanding also that the accounts of provincial, local, and municipal funds were £49,549 better than the regular estimates.

The causes of this diminution of the balances are as follows:—The Secretary of State's outstanding bills were paid in excess of estimate by £456,897: the disbursements on the deposit account were under-estimated by £250,000; and the net balance of the various remittance transactions between the home treasury and the Indian treasuries, between the several presidencies and provinces, between the several departments, and between local officers, proved more unfavorable than was expected by £280,000.

Including the portion of the guaranteed railway interest paid from the revenues, the net expenditure from the home treasury in 1872-73 was £10,332,712, and the share of the guaranteed interest payable in England provided from the surplus railway earnings amounted to £2,508,748; besides which a net sum of £528,622 guaranteed railway capital was withdrawn for actual expenditure, and £794,701 was disbursed in excess of the receipts on the several deposit and remittance accounts. Thus the net out-goings of the home treasury aggregated £14,164,783. To meet this the sum of £14,342,136 was raised by bills drawn upon India, the excess of £177,353 being added to the cash balances, which were increased from £2,821,092 to £2,998,445. There was no borrowing and no repayment of debt in England.

INDIAN TREASURIES,

The net revenue in India in 1872-73 after the discharge of all expenditure in India amounted to £9,912,020; the net traffic earnings received from the guaranteed railway companies towards the payment of the guaranteed interest were £2,508,748; provincial, local, and municipal revenues and receipts yielded to the treasury a surplus of £426,371; service funds civil yielded £210,844; savings banks £241,412; sundry obligations £277,582; remittances £407,887; and the receipts of railway capital exceeded the advances by £27,760. Thus the total net receipts amounted to £14,012,624. Secretary of State's bills for the supply of the home treasury were, however, paid for £14,716,904, besides which £1,488,481 (net) public debt was paid off; the payments of advances and deposits exceeded the receipts by £503,516; the transfer from the military funds was £253,878, and a net sum of £259,867 was advanced on loan to native states, corporations, &c. The total net disbursements thus amounted to £17,222,646, exceeding the net receipts by £3,210,022. Accordingly, the balances show a diminution by this amount, viz., from £21,997,715 to £18,787,693.

WHOLE ACCOUNT,
1872-73.

Taking the account as a whole, the deficiency upon the whole account of revenue and expenditure was £420,692: the transfer from military funds amounted to £253,878: loans were made for £259,867 (net): the deposit account including Secretary of State's bills showed a balance of £506,575, and the several remittance accounts £758,523, against the treasury: public debt was paid amounting to £1,488,481: railway capital was withdrawn amounting to £500,862: making the total of net debits £4,188,878. Of this £1,156,209 was provided as follows:—The provincial, local, and municipal receipts exceeded the payments by £426,371: service funds (civil) yielded £210,844: savings banks £241,412, and sundry obligations £277,582. The remaining £3,032,669 were expended from the balances in hand at the beginning of the year, which show a reduction by this amount, viz., from £24,818,807 to £21,786,138.

CLOSING BALANCE,
1873-74.

It was estimated in the budget estimate that at the close of the financial year 1873-74 there would be £2,264,568 in the home treasury and £14,800,000 in the treasuries in India, making a total of £17,064,568. It is now estimated that on the 31st March 1874, there was a sum of £16,143,838 in the treasuries, of which £2,020,145 was in the home treasury and £14,123,693 in the Indian treasuries. The difference between the original and the present estimate (£920,730) is mainly due to the expenditure caused by the famine in Bengal. This expenditure is, as has been stated before, believed to have amounted, including loans, to £4,107,000; so that if it had not occurred, there would have been a cash balance, at the close of the year, of £20,250,838, or £3,186,270 more than the budget estimate.

HOME TREASURY,
1873-74.

Including the Government share of the guaranteed railway interest, the net expenditure from the home treasury against the revenues in 1873-74 is now estimated to have been £10,206,300, and the guaranteed railway interest payable in England provided from surplus earnings £3,064,000, and the net payments on the remittance and deposit accounts are estimated to have been £1,070,900, making a net total of £14,341,200. Of this the Secretary of State borrowed a net sum of £5,000; the railway companies paid in £71,900 more capital than they withdrew; and the sum of £13,286,000 was raised by bills; total £13,362,900; the deficiency, £978,300, was taken from the balance in the home treasury at the beginning of the year, which has accordingly been reduced from £2,998,445 to £2,020,145.

Ways and means and cash balances.

The net revenue in India in 1873-74, after defraying all expenditure in India, is estimated to have been £4,564,000, and the net traffic earnings towards the guaranteed interest £3,064,000: service funds, civil, yield £115,700; savings banks contribute net £409,000; deposits £276,400; sundry obligations £230,000; remittances £989,000; and the net receipts of railway capital amounted to £60,700. But £13,280,700 has been paid on the Secretary of State's bills; the net sum of £132,300 has been paid for provincial and local services in excess of the receipts from these funds; £361,900 has been transferred to revenue from the military funds, £539,300 (net) advanced on loan to corporations, &c., and public debt amounting to £58,600 has been discharged. Thus, while the net receipts amount to £9,708,800, the net payments amount to £14,372,800; the excess (£4,664,000) has been taken from the cash balances, which have accordingly been reduced from £18,787,693 to £14,123,693.

INDIAN TREASURIES,

Taking the account as a whole, it is estimated that the total deficit of ways and means on the account of revenue and expenditure was £5,642,300; that £132,300 more was withdrawn on account of provincial and local revenues than was paid in; that £361,900 (net) was paid out from the military funds, that £539,300 (net) was advanced on loans to corporations; that the balance of the several remittance accounts was against the treasury by £78,600, and that the permanent debt was reduced by £53,600 (net). Thus the total of the net debits amounted to £6,808,000. The net credits were as follows: the service funds, civil, yielded £115,700; savings banks the unusually large sum of £409,000 owing to certain abuses which have been corrected, and deposits £278,400; £230,000 (net) was received on the sundry obligation account and £132,600 net railway capital. Thus the total of the net receipts amounted to £1,165,700. So that the cash balances have been reduced by £5,642,300 (from £21,786,138 to £16,143,838).

WHOLE ACCOUNT,
1873-74.

It is now estimated that the deficit upon the whole account of revenue and expenditure in 1874-75 will be £5,951,000; that the balances at credit of provincial, local, and municipal funds will be reduced by £607,700; that £358,300 will be transferred to credit of revenue from the military funds; that £500,000 (net) will be required for loans to corporations, &c., and that the net sum of £1,468,700 railway capital will be withdrawn. The total net debits will thus be £8,885,700. The several remittance accounts, including the Secretary of State's bills, are estimated to be in equilibrium. The only net receipts expected are £99,800 from the civil service funds, £420,000 on the deposit account and £263,400 on the account of sundry obligations. The net deficit on the whole account of ways and means in 1874-75 is thus estimated to be £8,102,500, which will be met by borrowing £8,500,000, the excess of £397,500 being added to the cash balances.

CLOSING BALANCE,
1874-75.

The net expenditure from the home treasury in 1874-75, including the Government share of the guaranteed interest payable in England chargeable against the revenue, is estimated at £10,569,400; and the portion of the guaranteed interest supplied by the surplus earnings and payable in England at £3,266,000; the railway capital withdrawn is expected to exceed that paid in by £1,035,800, and the payments on the remittance account are expected to be more than the receipts by £880,200. Thus the net outgoings to be provided for from the home treasury are £15,751,400, of which the Secretary of State proposes to provide £751,400 by reducing his cash balance. Of the remainder, £5,000,000 will be borrowed, and £10,000,000 raised by bills upon India.

HOME TREASURY,

It is estimated that the revenue in India in 1874-75 will exceed the expenditure in India by £4,618,400; that the net guaranteed railway earnings received for remittance to England will be £3,266,000; that service funds, civil, will yield net £99,800; that the deposit account will yield net £420,000; that the receipts on the several remittance accounts will exceed the disbursements by £880,200; and that sundry obligations will yield £263,400. On the other hand, it is estimated that the net sum of £607,700 will be withdrawn from provincial, local, and municipal funds; that the transfer from service funds, military, will be £358,300; that £500,000 will be required for loans to native states, corporations, and individuals, and that £432,900 railway capital will be paid in excess of receipts; so that, apart from the supply of the home treasury, the total net disbursements will be £1,898,900. Deducting the net disbursements (£1,898,900) from the net receipts (£9,547,800), a net sum of £7,648,900 only is available to meet the bills to be drawn by the Secretary of State for the supply of the home treasury, which will, as has been shown, amount to £10,000,000. Thus there is a deficiency of £2,351,100, to cover which and raise the cash balances (by £1,148,900) to £15,272,593, it is proposed if necessary to borrow during the year £3,500,000 as explained below.

Loan operations.

LOAN OPERATIONS.

DEBT INCURRED
AND DISCHARGED,
1872-73.

The sum of £110,000 was borrowed in 1872-73, being a portion of the $4\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. loan in course of receipt from the Mahārāja Holkar for the construction of the Indore State Railway; and the sum of £1,598,508 was paid off as follows:—promissory notes of the $5\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. and $4\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. long-currency loans for £477,160 were bought early in the year, the balances in hand being more than were immediately required: an instalment of the 5 per cent. debenture loan of 1867-68 fell due and was paid off to the amount of £233,400; and outstanding notes of the discharged 4 per cent. loans of 1854-55 and 1856-57 were presented and paid to the amount of £887,270. There were a few minor operations. The whole funded debt was reduced by the net amount of £1,488,481.

The operations of 1873-74 were not important. Further instalments of the loan from Mahārāja Holkar were received, but they were balanced by further payments of the outstanding notes of the discharged 5 per cent. loans, so that the debt was reduced by the net amount of £53,600.

When the notes of the $5\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. and $4\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. loans of long currency were bought at the beginning of 1872-73, some notes of the shorter-currency $4\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. loans and of the 4 per cent. loans were also purchased, and held bearing no interest, as a temporary investment of the cash balances; they are now being re-issued as notes of the 4 per cent. loans; the aggregate amount was £682,400, of which notes for £350,000 were sold in 1873-74.

1874-75.

To provide funds for the service of 1874-75, it will be necessary as has been explained to borrow £8,500,000. Of this sum the Secretary of State has undertaken to borrow £5,000,000 in England at once. Of the remainder, £860,000 is due from the Mahārāja Sindhia and Holkar for the construction of the Gwalior and Indore State Railways; the balance will be raised in India or England as may appear most convenient.

EXPENDITURE OF MONEY BORROWED
SINCE 1867-68.

A return (No. VII) is appended to this statement which carries to the end of 1872-73 the statements given for the last three years by Sir Richard Temple, showing all money borrowed since the policy of borrowing money for reproductive works was first publicly defined, side by side with the amount spent on reproductive works during this period, and the net loans to corporations, &c. This statement shows that the whole of the money borrowed to the end of 1872-73 was less, by £45,831, than the amount disbursed for reproductive works and loans to corporations, &c.: the expenditure of this character in 1873-74 has been met without increasing the registered public debt.

The separation of the extraordinary from the ordinary expenditure was first made in 1867-68. From the beginning of that year to the end of 1872-73, it is estimated that expenditure amounting to £9,553,543 was classified in the accounts as extraordinary. During the same period, the deficit on the whole account was £6,845,555; to which must be added the sum of £1,765,256 credited to revenue during these years from the military and medical funds, for these credits do not supply ways and means; the whole true deficit is thus raised to £8,610,811, which is less than the expenditure on reproductive works by £942,732. During the same period the net sum of £12,716,654 was raised by Miscellaneous loan, and the account stands thus—

MISCELLANEOUS.

The circulation of paper currency which in 1872-73 exceeded 13 millions sterling has in the past year fallen to a much lower range, and now hardly exceeds 9 millions sterling. The main cause of this falling-off is to be traced to the reduction of the Government cash balances which during the past two years have been gradually absorbed in expenditure on canals and railways. The decrease in the reserves at the presidency towns has been accelerated by the heavy expenditure for the relief of the distress in Bengal. PAPER CURRENCY.

Concurrently with these extraordinary demands, which have involved the provision of large amounts of specie at various points in the provinces, has occurred the usual demand for silver for the opium crop, and for the staple food, seed, and fibre crops. The food crops having been largely bought for home consumption, their purchase has not led to the sale of commercial bills on England, which would have occurred had the demand been for export, and the rates of sterling exchange have not responded so immediately as would have been the case if the demand had been of an ordinary commercial character. The consequence has been a great temporary deficiency of currency at the monetary centres, which is reflected in the paper currency circulation. The considerable importations of silver bullion recently made, and further amounts now expected, will tend to remove this inconvenience.

The circulation of five-rupee notes has continued to advance, though slowly, notwithstanding the falling-off in the general circulation.

The money order department shows little change from the figures given in March 1873. Two hundred and ninety-one offices are now open, against 302 in 1873: the small decrease arises from the closure of offices whose transactions were found to be nearly nominal. In the number of orders issued there is a slight increase from 251,123 last year to 269,435 in the year just completed. Their amount has also risen from £1,251,411 to £1,292,163. MONEY ORDERS.

The overland money order system has continued to afford a convenient mode of remitting to England small sums of money: 756 orders were drawn in 1873-74 on India for £2,603 and 9,306 upon England for £54,458. The system has as yet yielded little or no profit to the State.

There has been during the past year a steady increase in the business of the Government savings banks scattered throughout the country: 137 district banks are now open in the Bengal Presidency holding £111,552 from 5,325 depositors. In Bombay it became necessary to check the abuse of the system, as it was found that persons opened numerous accounts in the same name, thus obtaining a rate of interest for money at call higher than was given by the banks. The total amount of deposits in Government savings banks of all descriptions at the end of 1873-74 is estimated at £1,887,163, and the depositors exceed 63,000. SAVINGS BANKS.

The price of gold relatively to silver has been such that no gold has been tendered at the Government treasuries or at the offices of the currency department. GOLD CURRENCY.

The price of Government securities has been firm for the greater part of the year. In Calcutta four per cent. rupee paper has been more than once (28th July and 30th October) quoted at 105½. The lowest quotation was PRICE OF GOVERNMENT SECURITIES.

Miscellaneous. 99 $\frac{3}{8}$ on the 18th March since when there has been a considerable recovery. The price of enfaced rupee paper in London varies with the rates of exchange: the highest quotation for four per cents. was 97 $\frac{1}{2}$ on the 1st and 3rd October, the lowest 94 on the 27th November. The highest price of sterling four per cents. was 104 at the beginning of July, the lowest 101 on the 27th November and 11th December. The rupee securities enfaced for the payment of interest in England by drafts on India increased from £12,991,592 at the close of 1872-73 to £13,282,245 at the close of 1873-74.

PRESIDENCY BANKS.

Negotiations have been conducted for renewed arrangements for the conduct of the business of the Government by the presidency banks at the presidency towns and elsewhere, but are not quite complete. Meanwhile the late agreements have been renewed, terminable after three months' notice from either party.

By order of His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor General in Council.

The 23rd April 1874.

No. 244.—The Railway Branch of the Public Works Department Secretariat, established under a Deputy Secretary in 1869, has since managed, in addition to the chief Government control of the Guaranteed Lines, the Executive as well as Administrative control of the State Railways. The work connected with the State Railways has so much increased, that the Governor General in Council has determined that the time has now come when the Executive control of the construction and working of these Railways should be separated from the duties of the Public Works Secretariat and transferred to a new Office. And His Excellency in Council is therefore pleased, with the sanction of the Secretary of State, to direct the following arrangements.

2. The duties of the chief Executive control of the State Railways will be entrusted to an officer to be designated Director of State Railways, aided by an Assistant and a suitable Office establishment. The Director will act under general instructions from the Railway Branch of the Public Works Department Secretariat.

3. The appointment of the Director of State Railways will not interfere in any way with the duties of the Consulting Engineer for State Railways, who will continue to inspect the Railways and advise the Government of India on professional matters as heretofore.

4. With the exceptions mentioned below, all Engineers-in-Chief and other Officers in charge of State Railways will correspond with, and receive their orders from, the Director of State Railways, instead of the Public Works Department Secretariat.

5. The entire establishment of Engineers and other persons employed on these State Railways will be placed under the orders of the Director, who is empowered to transfer the officers and subordinates of all grades from one State Railway to another according to the requirements of the public service. The Director will recommend to the Government of India from time to time the promotions and appointments necessary to fill vacancies in the establishments, according to the usual rules in the Public Works Department. The Director is also empowered to grant privilege leave to the superior officers employed in the State Railways under the usual rules, notifying in Part II of the Gazette of India.

6. The Director of State Railways will be entrusted with certain powers to deal with business coming before him, and will refer to the Railway Branch of the Public Works Secretariat of the Government of India in cases not coming within those powers.

7. The above orders will not apply to His Highness the Nizam's State Railway and the small Branch Railways in the Berars, which will continue to be administered by the Resident at Hyderabad as heretofore, under direct instructions from the Public Works Department Secretariat.

8. These orders will not apply to Railways constructed and maintained from Provincial Funds.

9. The Wardha Valley Railway will also for the present be excepted, and will remain under the control of the Administration of the Central Provinces.

10. The Northern Bengal Railway will, during the present scarcity, be excepted from these orders, and remain, as a temporary arrangement, under the orders of the Government of Bengal.

11. The Calcutta and South-Eastern Railway and the Nulhattee Railway will be transferred from the control of the Consulting Engineer for Guaranteed Railways in Calcutta to the Director of State Railways, and also the arrangements for manufacture and erection of rolling-stock in Calcutta. The arrangements at Bombay and Kurrachee will remain undisturbed till further orders.

12. The Governor General in Council is pleased to appoint Lieutenant-Colonel E. C. S. Williams, R. E., to be Director of State Railways, and Captain K. C. Pye, R. E., to be Assistant Director of State Railways.

13. These appointments and the arrangements above notified will have effect from the date of the receipt of this order.

No. 245.—In continuation of Notification No. 244, the Governor General in Council is pleased to make the following appointment and promotion—

Colonel H. Drummond, R. E., Chief Engineer, 2nd class, to be Deputy Secretary to the Government of India in the Railway Branch of the Public Works Department vice Williams.

Captain G. T. Skipwith, R. E., Assistant Secretary to the Government of India, in the Public Works Department, to have the rank of Executive Engineer 1st grade, vice Pye.

The 24th April 1874.

No. 246.—The Governor General in Council is pleased to make the following special promotions of the Officers engaged on the construction of the Railway from Chumpta Ghât to Durbunga, with effect from the 18th instant:—

Major F. S. Stanton, R. E., Superintending Engineer, 2nd grade, to be Superintending Engineer, 1st grade.

No. 977 G., dated Fort William, 8th May 1874.

RESOLUTION—By the Government of India, Foreign Department.

HIS Excellency the Governor General in Council desires to place on record his sense of the loss which has been caused to the Government of India, and to Her Majesty's Indian Civil Service, by the sudden and premature death, on the 4th of May, of Mr. Henry LePoer Wynne, while he was officiating as Secretary to the Government of India in the Foreign Department.

Mr. Wynne held for five years the Office of Under-Secretary to the Government of India in the Foreign Department, and in that capacity rendered most valuable service. He had recently filled with great credit the appointment of officer on special duty in Cashmere; and the Government confidently anticipated for him a future career of high personal distinction and public utility.

In order to provide the new Administration with a separate and sufficient staff of officers for carrying on the ordinary revenue and judicial business of the country, the Governor General in Council has been pleased to order the following distribution.

2. On the date of the creation of the Chief Commissionership of Assam the sanctioned complement of officers for the Non-Regulation Districts of Bengal included 20 Deputy Commissioners and Political Agents, 21 Assistant Commissioners, and 53 Extra Assistant Commissioners. These were divided into the following grades :

Deputy Commissioners.

1st grade	4
2nd „	6
3rd „	6
4th „	4

Assistant Commissioners.

1st grade	7
2nd „	8
3rd „	6

Extra Assistant Commissioners.

1st grade	1
2nd „	2
3rd „	3
4th „	3
5th „	8
6th „	14
7th „	22

3. To provide for the ten districts made over to the Chief Commissioner of Assam, ten Deputy Commissioners are separated from the Bengal list and permanently attached to Assam. The number of appointments in each grade of Deputy Commissioners will eventually be equally divided between the Non-Regulation Districts which remain with Bengal and those which have been attached to Assam. But for the present the Chief Commissioner will be allowed to retain a Deputy Commissioner of the 1st grade in excess of the proper number in the place of one in the 2nd grade. On a vacancy occurring in the 1st grade in Assam that step will be given to a Deputy Commissioner in Bengal of the 2nd grade, while the vacancy caused by the promotion of the latter will revert to the Assam Commission. And in order to provide the Chief Commissioner with a Secretary and to enable him to select an officer for that appointment of the standing of a Deputy Commissioner, the addition of another appointment to the 3rd grade of the Deputy Commissioners has been sanctioned. Thus there will be eleven Deputy Commissioners in all—ten for the districts and one for the Secretariat.

4. Of the 21 Assistant Commissioners twelve are transferred to Assam in the following grades :

1st grade	4
2nd „	5
3rd „	3

and there will remain with Bengal nine Assistant Commissionerships divided as follows :

1st grade	3
2nd „	3
3rd „	3

For the present the sanctioned complement of Assistant Commissioners in Assam will stand at twelve ; but the two questions of raising the sanctioned complement of the Assam Commission so as to enable the Governor General in Council to fill up temporary vacancies from local resources, and of determining the source from which substantive vacancies should be filled up as they occur, are reserved for future consideration. And in anticipation of these arrangements, Lieutenants Maxwell and Gray who are now employed in Assam will be retained as supernumeraries.

5. Of the 53 Extra Assistant Commissioners 20 are transferred to Assam and 33 remain with Bengal. The grades are divided as follows :

Assam.

2nd grade	1
3rd	„	2
5th	„	3
6th	„	3
7th	„	11

But it will be convenient to number the grades of Extra Assistant Commissioners transferred to Assam in serial order. And the Assam Extra Assistants will therefore be divided into five grades, the 1st on Rupees 700 a month corresponding in salary with the Bengal 2nd grade, and the 5th on Rupees 250 a month corresponding in salary with the Bengal 7th grade.

The single Special Extra Assistant Commissioner in Cachar will be retained in that appointment on the Assam list, and one supernumerary now actually employed in the province, viz., Baboo Sib Pershad Chuckerbutty, will be retained pending consideration of the questions alluded to in paragraph 4 of this Resolution.

6. The list below, which shows in a tabular form the division of establishments which has been made between Bengal and Assam, is published for general information; and the Governor General in Council is pleased to appoint the officers in column I. to be Deputy Commissioners, Assistant Commissioners, and Extra Assistant Commissioners in the Assam Commission in the several grades to which they have been attached.

The arrangements to be made for the Police, Education and other establishments are under consideration and will be notified hereafter.

No. 1025P.—The following Order of Her Majesty in Council, published in the London Gazette of the 20th March 1874, is republished for general information:—

At the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of March 1874.

PRESENT:

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the Session of Parliament holden in the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for amending the Law relating to the Extradition of Criminals," it was amongst other things enacted that, where an arrangement has been made with any foreign State with respect to the surrender to such State of any fugitive criminals, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council, direct that the said Act shall apply in the case of such foreign State; and that Her Majesty may, by the same or any subsequent Order, limit the operation of the Order, and restrict the same to fugitive criminals who are in or suspected of being in the part of Her Majesty's dominions specified in the Order, and render the operation thereof subject to such conditions, exceptions, and qualifications as may be deemed expedient:

And whereas a Treaty was concluded on the third day of December last between Her Majesty and the Emperor of Austria, King of Bohemia, &c., &c., and Apostolic King of Hungary, for the Mutual Extradition of Fugitive Criminals, which Treaty is in the terms following:—

HER Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and His Majesty the Emperor of Austria, King of Bohemia, &c., &c., and Apostolic King of Hungary, having judged it expedient, with a view to the better administration of justice and to the prevention of crime within the two countries and their jurisdictions, that persons charged with or convicted of the crimes hereinafter enumerated, and being fugitives from justice, should, under certain circumstances, be reciprocally delivered up; Their said Majesties have named as their Plenipotentiaries to conclude a Treaty for this purpose, that is to say:

Her Majesty the Queen of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the Right Honourable Sir Andrew Buchanan, a Member of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Her Majesty's Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to His Imperial and Royal Apostolic Majesty;

And His Imperial and Royal Apostolic Majesty, the Count Julius Andrassy of Csik-Szent-Király and Kraszna Horka, His Imperial and Royal Majesty's Privy Councillor, Minister of the Imperial House and of Foreign Affairs, Grand Cross of the Order of St. Stephen, &c.;

Who, after having communicated to each other their respective full powers, found in good and due form,

NACHDEM Ihre Majestät die Königin des Vereinigten Königreiches von Gross britannien und Irland, und Seine Majestät der Kaiser von Oesterreich König von Böhmen U. S. W. und Apostolischer König von Ungarn behufs besserer Verwaltung der Rechtspflege und zur Verhütung von Verbrechen innerhalb der beiden Reiche und deren Gerichtsbarkeiten se für zweckmässig befunden haben, dass Personen, welche der in diesem Vertrage aufgeführten strafbaren Handlungen beschuldigt oder wegen solcher Handlungen verurtheilt und vor der Justiz flüchtig geworden sind, unter bestimmten Umständen gegenseitig ausgeliefert werden sollen; so haben Ihre eben gedachten Majestäten behufs Abschlusses eines solchen Vertrages zu Ihren Bevollmächtigten ernannt nämlich:

Ihre Majestät die Königin des Vereinigten Königreichs von Gross britannien und Irland den Sehr Ehrenwerthen Sir Andrew Buchanan, Mitglied Ihrer Majestät Hochstehenden Geheimen Rathes, Grosskreuz des Höchsten Ehrenwerthen Bath-Ordens, Allerhöchstihren ausserordentlichen und bevollmächtigten Botschafter bei Seiner kaiserlichen und königlich apostolischen Majestät;

Und Seine Kaiserliche und Königlich Apostolische Majestät, den Herrn Julius Grafen Andrassy von Csik-Szent-Király und Kraszna Horka, Allerhöchstihren wirklichen geheimen Rath, Minister des Kaiserlichen Hauses und des Aeussern, Grosskreuz des St. Stefan-Ordens, etc.;

ARTICLE I.

The High Contracting Parties engage to deliver up to each other those persons who, being accused or convicted of a crime committed in the territory of the one Party, shall be found within the territory of the other Party under the circumstances and conditions stated in the present Treaty.

ARTICLE II.

The crimes for which the extradition is to be granted are the following :—

1. Murder, or attempt to murder.
2. Manslaughter.
3. Counterfeiting or altering money, uttering or bringing into circulation counterfeit or altered money.
4. Forgery or counterfeiting, or altering or uttering what is forged or counterfeited or altered; comprehending the crimes designated in the Austrian Penal Laws or in the Hungarian Penal Laws and Customs as counterfeiting or falsification of paper money, bank notes, or other securities, forgery or falsification of other public or private documents, likewise the uttering or bringing into circulation, or wilfully using such counterfeited, forged, or falsified papers.
- The definition is to be determined accordingly with the Austrian Penal Laws if the extradition shall take place from Austria, and accordingly with the Hungarian Penal Laws and Customs if the extradition shall take place from Hungary.
5. Embezzlement or larceny.
6. Obtaining money or goods by false pretences.
7. Crimes against bankruptcy law: comprehending the crimes considered as frauds committed by the bankrupt in connection with the bankruptcy, according with the Austrian Penal Laws if the extradition shall take place from Austria, and with the Hungarian Penal Laws if the extradition shall take place from Hungary.
8. Fraud by a bailee, banker, agent, factor, trustee, or director or member, or public officer of any company, made criminal by any law for the time being in force.

20. Malicious injury to property, if the offence be indictable.

The extradition is also to take place for participation in any of the aforesaid crimes, as accessory either before or after the fact, provided such participation be punishable by the laws of both the Contracting Parties.

In all these cases the extradition will only take place from the Austro-Hungarian States when the crimes, if committed in Austria, would, according to Austrian law, constitute a "Verbrechen," or, if committed in Hungary, would, according to the laws and customs being in force in Hungary, constitute a crime ("buntett"); the extradition from Great Britain only when the crimes, if committed in England, or within English jurisdiction, would constitute an extradition crime, as described in the Extradition Acts of 1870 and 1873.

ARTICLE III.

In no case and on no grounds whatever shall the High Contracting schaft, soweit diese Untreue nach den bestehenden Gesetzen mit Strafe bedroht ist.

(9.) Nothzucht.

(10.) Entführung.

(11.) Kinderraub, Menschenraub, unbefugte Einschränkung der persönlichen Freiheit eines Menschen.

(12.) Einbrechen und Eindringen in ein Wohnhaus oder dazu gehoriges Nebengebäude mit der Absicht, ein Verbrechen zu begehen, zur Tageszeit (house-breaking) oder Nachtzeit (burglary).

(13.) Vorsätzliche Brandstiftung (Brandlegung).

(14.) Raub mit Anwendung von Gewaltthätigkeiten oder Drossungen.

(15.) Erpressungen.

(16.) Vorsätzliche Versenkung oder Zerstörung eines Schiffes zur See, oder Versuch dieses Verbrechens.

(17.) Angriffe auf Personen an Bord eines Schiffes auf hoher See in der Absicht zu tödten oder eine schwere Körperverletzung zu verüben.

(18.) Widerstand mit Thätlichkeiten (revolt) gegen den Schiffsführer an Bord eines Schiffes auf hoher See, wenn dieser von zwei oder mehreren Personen verübt wird, oder Verschwörung zu einem Solchen Widerstande.

(19.) Falsche eidliche Aussage, Verleitung zu derselben.

(20.) Boshafte Beschädigung fremden Eigenthums, insoferne sie nicht blos als Uebertretung strafbar ist.

Die Auslieferung findet auch wegen Betheiligung an einer der vorbezeichneten strafbaren Handlungen statt, ohne Unterschied, ob die Betheiligung vor oder nach der That erfolgte, jedoch nur unter der Voraussetzung, dass sie nach den Gesetzen beider vertragschliessenden Theile als Verbrechen strafbar sei.

In allen diesen Fällen findet die Auslieferung aus den oesterreichisch-ungarischen Staaten nur dann Statt wenn die strafbaren Handlungen, falls sie in Oesterreich begangen worden wären, nach dem oesterreichischen Gesetze ein Verbrechen begründen, oder falls sie in Ungarn begangen worden wären, nach den in Ungarn in Geltung stehenden Gesetzen und Gewohnheiten ein Verbrechen (buntett) begründen, die Auslieferung aus Grossbritannien aber nur dann, wenn die strafbare Handlung, falls sie in England oder innerhalb der Englischen Jurisdiktion begangen worden wäre, ein Auslieferungsverbrechen in Sinne der Extraditions akte von 1870 und 1873 begründen würde.

ARTIKEL III.

In keinem falle und aus keinem Grunde sollen die hohen vertragshütlenség a fennálló törvények szerint büntetendő cselekményt képez.

(9.) Erőszakos nemi közösülés.

(10.) Elragadás.

(11.) Gyermekrablás, emberrablás és törvénytelen letartóztatás.

(12.) Lakházba vagy ahhoz tartozó melléképületbe, büntett elkövetésnek szándékával való betörés vagy behatolás akár nappal ("house-breaking") akár éjnek idején ("burglary").

(13.) Szándékos gyújtogatás.

(14.) Rablás, erőszak vagy fenyegetés alkalmazásával.

(15.) Zsarolás.

(16.) A tengeren levő hajónak szándékos elsüllyesztése vagy elpusztítása, ezen büntett elkövetésének kísérlete.

(17.) Nyílt tengeren levő hajón létező személyeknek megtámadása, ölési vagy súlyos testi sértési szándékkal.

(18.) Tettlegességgel járó ellenszegülés ("revolt") a nyílt tengeren levő hajónak vezetője ellen, ha két vagy több személy által követtetik el, úgyszintén ily ellenszegülésre való szövetkezés.

(19.) Hamis eskü, és hamis esküre csábítás.

(20.) Idegen tulajdon gonosz akaratú megsértése, mennyiben mint büntett üldözendo".

Az elősorolt büntetendo" cselekményekben tett elo"tti vagy utáni részesség miatt, a kiadásnak szintén van helye, ha a részességre mindkét szerződő fél törvényei büntetést állapítanak meg.

Mindezen esetekben a kiadásnak az osztrákmagyar államokból csak azon föltétel alatt lesz helye, ha a büntettek, mennyiben Ausztriában követték el, az ausztriai büntető törvénykönyv szerint, ha pedig Magyarországon követték volna el, a Magyarországon hatályban levő törvények és gyakorlat szerint büntettet képeznek, Nagybritanniából azonban a kiadásnak csak azon föltétel alatt lesz helye, ha a büntettek, a mennyiben azok Angolországban vagy az angol hatóság területén követték volna el, az 1870^{ik} és 1873^{ik} évi kiadási törvény értelmében kiadási büntettet képeznének.

III. CZIKK.

A magas szerzo"do"felek soha és semmi szín alatt sem köteleztetne,

Parties be held to concede the extradition of their own subjects.

ARTICLE IV.

The extradition shall not take place if the person claimed on the part of the Government of the United Kingdom, or the person claimed on the part of the Government of Austria-Hungary, has already been tried and discharged or punished, or is still under trial, in the Austro-Hungarian dominions, or in the United Kingdom respectively, for the crime for which his extradition is demanded.

If the person claimed on the part of the Government of the United Kingdom, or if the person claimed on the part of the Government of Austria-Hungary, should be under examination for any other crime in the Austro-Hungarian dominions, or in the United Kingdom respectively, his extradition shall be deferred until the conclusion of the trial, and the full execution of any punishment awarded to him.

Should an individual whose extradition is demanded be at litigation, or be detained in the country on account of private obligations, his surrender shall nevertheless be made, the injured party retaining the right to prosecute his claims before the competent authority.

ARTICLE V.

The extradition shall not take place if, with respect to the crime for which it is demanded, and according to the laws of the country applied to, criminal prosecution and punishment has lapsed.

ARTICLE VI.

A fugitive criminal shall not be surrendered if the offence in respect of which his surrender is demanded is one of a political character, or if he prove that the requisition, for his surrender has, in fact, been made with a view to try or punish him for an offence of a political character.

ARTICLE VII.

If an individual whose extradition is demanded by either of the High Contracting Parties, in accordance with the terms of this Treaty, be also claimed by one or several other chliessenden Theile gehalten sein, die Auslieferung der eigenen Unterthanen zuzugestehen.

ARTIKEL IV.

Die Auslieferung soll nicht stattfinden wenn die Person, deren Auslieferung aus Oesterreich-Ungarn verlangt wird, in einem der Länder der Oesterreichisch-ungarischen Monarchie, oder die Person, deren Auslieferung aus Grossbritannien verlangt wird, im vereinigten Königreiche, wegen derselben strafbaren Handlung, wegen deren die Auslieferung beantragt wird, in Untersuchung gewesen und ausser Verfolgung gesetzt worden, oder sich noch in Untersuchung befindet, oder bereits bestraft worden ist.

Wenn die Person deren Auslieferung begehrt wird, in dem Staatsgebiete, wo sie sich befindet, wegen einer anderen strafbaren Handlung in Untersuchung oder Strafe ist, so soll ihre Auslieferung bis zur Beendigung dieser Untersuchung und vollendeter Vollstreckung der etwa gegen sie erkannten Strafe aufgeschoben werden.

Sollte ein Individuum dessen Auslieferung begehrt wird, wegen privatrechtlicher Verpflichtungen in Prozess stehen oder zurückgehalten werden, so soll dessen Auslieferung nichts-destowenger stattfinden; die verletzte Person behält jedoch das Recht ihre Ansprüche vor der zuständigen Behörde zu verfolgen.

ARTIKEL V.

Die Auslieferung soll nicht stattfinden, wenn in Betreff des Verbrechens, wegen dessen die Auslieferung begehrt wird, nach den Gesetzen des um die Auslieferung angegangenen Staates, die Strafverfolgung oder die Strafvollstreckung durch Verjährung erloschen ist.

ARTIKEL VI.

Ein flüchtiger Verbrecher soll nicht ausgeliefert werden, wenn die strafbare Handlung, wegen deren seine Auslieferung begehrt wird, einen politischen Character an sich trägt, oder wenn er darthut, dass der Antrag auf seine Auslieferung in Wirklichkeit mit der Absicht gestellt worden ist, ihn wegen eines Verbrechens oder Vergehens politischer Natur zu verfolgen oder zu bestrafen.

ARTIKEL VII.

Wenn ein Individuum deassen Auslieferung in Gemässheit dieses Vertrages von einer der beiden Vertragsmächte begehrt wird, noch von einer oder mehreren anderen Mächten saját alattvalóik kiadásának engedélyezésére.

IV. CZIKK.

Nincs helye a kiadatásnak, ha azon személy, a kinek Ausztriából vagy Magyarországból való kiadása kívántatik, az osztrákmagyar monarchia valamelyik országában, vagy pedig azon személy, a kinek kiadása Nagybritanniából kívántatik, az egyesült királyságban, ugyanazon büntetendő cselekmény miatt, mely miatt kiadása kívántatik, vizsgálat alatt állott, és azon eljárás meg lett szüntetve, vagy az illető egyén még vizsgálat alatt áll, vagy már megbüntetve lett.

Ha a személy, a kinek kiadása kívántatik, azon államterületen, a melyen tartózkodik, valamely más büntetendő cselekmény miatt vizsgálat vagy büntetés alatt áll, ezen esetben kiadása azon időre halasztandó, midőn ellene a vizsgálat befejeztetett, vagy midőn büntetését kiállotta.

Ha az egyén, a kinek kiadása kéretik, magánjogi kötelezettségek miatt perben állana, vagy visszatartatnék, kiadása ennek ellenére is eszközöndő, fennmaradván a sértett félnek abbéli joga, hogy követelését az illetékes hatóság előtt érvényesítse.

V. CZIKK.

A kiadás nem eszközöndő, ha azon büntetendő cselekményre nézve, mely miatt a kiadás kívántatik, az erre megkeresett állam törvényei szerint a bünovádi eljárás elévülés folytán nem indítható meg, vagy a büntetés ugyanezen okból nem hajtható végre.

VI. CZIKK.

A menekült büntetett nem adandó ki, ha a büntetendő cselekmény, mely miatt kiadása kívántatik, politikai jelleggel bírna, vagy ha igazoljai azt, hogy kiadása valósággal politikai természetű büntett vagy vétség miatti üldöztetése vagy megbüntetése céljából kívántatik.

VII. CZIKK.

Ha azon egyén, kinek kiadása a szerződőfelek egyike által a jelen szerződés értelmében kívántatik, egy vagy több más állam által is, az ezek területén elkövetett más bün-

Powers on account of other crimes committed on their territory, he shall be surrendered to the Government in whose territory his gravest crime was committed; and if his crimes are all of the same gravity, or a doubt exists as to which is the gravest, to the Government which first made application for his surrender.

ARTICLE VIII.

A surrendered person shall in no case be kept in arrest or subjected to examination in the State to which he has been surrendered on account of another previous crime, or any other grounds than those of his surrender, unless such person has, after his surrender, had an opportunity of returning to the country whence he was surrendered, and has not made use of this opportunity, or unless he, after having returned there, re-appears in the country to which he has already been surrendered.

This stipulation does not refer to crimes committed after surrender.

ARTICLE IX.

Requisitions for surrender shall be made by the Diplomatic Agents of the High Contracting Parties.

To the requisition for the surrender of an accused person there must be attached a warrant issued by the competent authorities of the State which demands extradition, and such proofs as would, according to the laws of the place where the accused was found, justify his arrest if the crime had been committed there.

If the requisition refers to a person already convicted, the sentence passed by the competent Tribunal of State demanding his surrender must be produced.

No requisition for surrender can be based on a conviction in contumaciam.

ARTICLE X.

If the requisition for extradition be in accordance with the foregoing stipulations, the competent authoriwegen anderer Verbrechen, die in deren Gebiete begangen wurden, reklamirt wird, so ist dasselbe der Regierung, in deren Gebiete die schwerere Gesetzes übertretung begangen wurde, und wenn die von ihm verübten strafbaren Handlungen gleich schwer wären, oder wenn es zweifelhaft bleibe, welche die schwerere sei, derjenigen Regierung auszuliefern, welche zuerst das Ersuchen um die Auslieferung gestellt hat.

ARTIKEL VIII.

Die ausgelieferte Person darf in dem Staate an welchen die Auslieferung erfolgt ist, keinesfalls wegen einer anderen früher begangenen strafbaren Handlung, oder auf Grund anderer Thatfachen als derjenigen wegen deren die Auslieferung erfolgt ist, in Haft gehalten oder zur Untersuchung gezogen werden, es wäre denn, dass sie nach der Auslieferung Gelegenheit gehabt hätte, in das Land zurückzukehren, aus welchem sie ausgeliefert wurde, und diese Gelegenheit nicht benützt hätte, oder dass sie, nachdem sie dahin zurückzukehrt war, freiwillig in dem Land wieder erschienen wäre, an das sie schon einmal ausgeliefert wurde.

Auf strafbare Handlungen, welche nach erfolgter Auslieferung verübt sind, findet diese Bestimmung keine Anwendung.

ARTIKEL IX.

Die Anträge auf Auslieferung sollen durch die diplomatischen Agenten der hohen vertragenden Theile gestellt werden.

Mit dem Antrage auf Auslieferung eines Beschuldigten müssen ein Haftbefehl, welcher von der zuständigen Behörde des die Auslieferung begehrenden Staates erlassen ist, und solche Beweise beigebracht werden, welche nach den Gesetzen des Ortes, wo der Beschuldigte aufgefunden wird, dessen Verhaftung rechtfertigen würden, wenn die strafbare Handlung dort begangen wäre.

Betrifft der Antrag eine bereits verurtheilte Person, so muss das Straf-urtheil beigebracht werden, welches von dem zuständigen Gericht des die Auslieferung begehrenden Staates gegen den Verurtheilten erlassen ist.

Auf Straf-urtheile welche auf Ausbleiben des Beschuldigten (in contumaciam) erlassen sind, kann der Auslieferungsantrag nicht gegründet werden.

ARTIKEL X.

Wenn das Auslieferungs begehren nach den, vorstehenden Bestimmungen, begründet ist, sollen die tettek miatt szintén kiadatni kívánatlik, ez esetben az azon kormány-nak adandó ki, a melynek területén a súlyosb törvénszegést követte el, ha pedig az általa elkövetett büntetendo" cselekmények súlyossága között nem lenne különbség vagy végre, ha kétes lenne, hogy melyik a súlyosabb büntetendő cselekmény, azon kormánynak adandó ki, mely legelőbb intézte a kiadás iránti megkeresést.

VIII CZIKK.

A kiadott személy azon államban, melynek kiadatott, a kiadását megelőző időben elkövetett más büntetendo" cselekmény miatt, vagy más tények alapján, mint azok, a melyek miatt kiadatott, semmi szín alatt sem tartható fogságban, vagy vonható vizsgálat alá, kivéven, ha kiadása után alkalma volt azon országba visszatérni, a melyből kiadatott's ezen alkalmat nem használta fel, vagy ha visszatért ugyan, de önként ismét azon országba ment, a melynek egyszer már kiadva lett.

A kiadás után elkövetett büntetendő cselekményekre ezen határozat nem alkalmazható.

IX. CZIKK.

A kiadás iránti megkeresések a magas szerződőfelek diplomatiái ügynői által terjesztendők elő.

A kiadás iránti megkereséssel előterjesztendők a kiadást szorgalmazó állam illetékes hatósága által kibocsátott elfogatási parancs, és oly bizonyítékok, melyek, ha a büntetendő cselekmény ott követtetett volna el, a hol a vádlott feltaláltatik, ezen helynek törvényei szerint vádlottnak elfogatását igazolnák.

Ha a kiadás iránti megkeresés már elítelt személyre vonatkozik: előterjesztendő a kiadást szorgalmazó állam illetékes bírósága által az elítelt ellen hozott büntető ítélet.

A kiadás iránti megkeresés vádlott meg nem jelenése folytán hozott ítéletre (in contumaciam) nem alapítható.

X. CZIKK.

Ha a kiadás iránti megkeresés, a fentebbi határozványok értelmében alapos, a megkeresett állam ille-ies of the State applied to shall proceed to the arrest of the fugitive.

The prisoner is then to be brought before a competent Magistrate, who is to examine him and to conduct the preliminary investigation of the case, just as if the apprehension had had taken place for a crime committed in the same country.

ARTICLE XI.

A fugitive criminal may, however, in urgent cases be arrested under a warrant of a Police Magistrate, Judge of the Peace, or of any other competent authority in either country, on such information or complaint, or such evidence as would, in the opinion of the person issuing the warrant, justify the issue of a warrant if the crime had been committed or the prisoner convicted in the district in which the authority happens to be; provided, however, that he shall be discharged if, within the shortest time possible, and at the utmost within fourteen days, a requisition for his surrender in accordance with the terms of Article IX of this Treaty is not made by the Diplomatic Agent of the State which demands his extradition.

ARTICLE XII.

The extradition shall not take place before the expiration of fifteen days from the apprehension, and then only if the evidence be found sufficient, according to the laws of the State applied to, either to justify the committal of the prisoner for trial, in case the crime had been committed in the territory of the said State, or to prove that the prisoner is the identical person convicted by the Courts of the State which makes the requisition.

ARTICLE XIII.

In the examinations which they have to make in accordance with the foregoing stipulations, the authorities of the State applied to shall admit as entirely valid evidence the sworn depositions or statements of witnesses taken in the other State, or copies thereof, and likewise the zuständigen Behörden des ersuchten Staates zur Festnahme des Flüchtlings schreiten.

Der Ergriffene wird sodann vor den dazu gesetzlich berufenen richterlichen Beamten gebracht, welcher ihn ebenso zu verhören und den Straffall verläufig zu untersuchen hat, als wenn die Ergreifung wegen einer im Inlande begangenen strafbaren Handlung erfolgt wäre.

ARTIKEL XI.

Ein flüchtiger Verbrecher kann ausserdem in dringenden Fällen in folge eines Verhaftsbefehles eines Polizeirichters, eines Friedensrichters, oder einer anderen in jedem der beiden Staaten hiezu berufenen Behörde, auf Grund solcher Anzeigen oder Beschwerden und solcher Nachweisungen oder nach solchen Erhebungen verhaftet werden welche nach dem Dafürhalten der Person, welche den Verhaftsbefehl ausstellt, die Ausfertigung eines Verhaftsbefehles rechtfertigen wurden wenn die Verübung der That oder die Verurtheilung des Gefangenen in dem Gebiete, in welchem sich diese Obrigkeit befindet, erfolgt wäre.

Vorausgesetzt wird übrigens, dass in der kürzesten Frist und zwar längstens binnen 14 Tagen bei sonstiger Entlassung des Verhafteten, durch den diplomatischen Vertreter des um die Auslieferung ersuchenden Staates, eine Requisition wegen der Auslieferung in der dem Artikel IX dieses Vertrages entsprechenden Weise erhoben wird.

ARTIKEL XII.

Die Auslieferung erfolgt nicht vor Ablauf von fünfzehn Tagen seit der Ergreifung und nur dann, wenn die Beweise für genügend befunden worden sind, um nach den Gesetzen des ersuchten Staates entweder die Verweisung des Ergriffenen zur Hauptuntersuchung zu rechtfertigen, falls die strafbare Handlung im Gebiete dieses Staates begangen wäre, oder darzuthun, dass der Ergriffene mit der von den Gerichten des ersuchenden Staates verurtheilten Person identische ist.

ARTIKEL XIII.

Die Behörden des ersuchten Staates haben bei der Prüfung, welche ihnen nach den vorstehenden Bestimmungen obliegt, den beeideten Zeugenaussagen, welche in dem anderen Staate zu Protokoll genommen sind, imgleichen den Abschriften solcher Original-Zeugentékes hatóságai kötelesek, a szökevény letartóztatása iránt intézkedni.

Ezután a letartóztatott egyén az illetékes bíró elé vezettetik, ki ak. képen köteles o't kihallgatni, és az eset előzetes vizsgálatát teljesíteni, mintha az elfogatás belföldön elkövetett büntetendő cselekmény miatt történt volna.

XI. CZIKK.

A menekült büntettes azonfelül sürgő's esetekben elfogható rendőrbíró, békebíró, vagy a szerződő államok bármelyikében erre illetékes más hatóság által, oly feljelentések, panaszok, bizonyítékok alapján, vagy oly nyomozások után kibocsátott elfogatási parancsra, melyek az elfogatási parancsot kibocsátó személynek véleménye szerint, a menekültnek elfogatását azon esetben indokolják, ha a cselekmény azon helyen követett volt el, vagy az ítélet ott hozott volt, a hol ezen felsőbbség létezik.

Feltételeztetik azonban, hogy a kiadás iránti megkeresés a megkereső állam diplomatai képviselője által, az ezen szerződés IX. cikkének megfelelő módon, a legrövidebb idő's legfőlebb 14 nap alatt, elő fog terjesztetni, ellenkező esetben az elfogatott szabadon bocsájtatik.

XII. CZIKK.

A kiadás csak az elfogatás utáni 15 nap lejártával és csak az esetben eszközöltetik, ha a bizonyítékok elegendőknek találtattak arra, hogy az elfogott elleni fővizsgálatnak elrendelését, ha a büntetendő cselekmény a megkeresett állam területén követett volt el, ezen állam törvényei szerint indoklják, vagy azt bizonyítsák, hogy az elfogott egyén ugyanaz azzal, a ki a megkereső állam bíróságai által elítéltetett.

XIII. CZIKK.

A megkeresett állam hatóságai kötelesek a fennebbi határozatok szerint általuk teljesítendő bíráltnál, a másik államban jegyzőkönyvbe vott eskü alatti tanuvallomásoknak úgyszintén ily eredeti tanuvallomási jegyzőkönyvek másolatainak, valamint az elfogatási parancsoknak és warrants and sentences issued therein, provided such documents are signed or certified by a Judge, Magistrate, or Officer of such State, and are authenticated by the oath of some witness or by being sealed with the official seal of the Minister of Justice, or some other Minister of State.

ARTICLE XIV.

If sufficient evidence for the extradition be not produced within two months from the date of the apprehension of the fugitive, he shall be set at liberty.

ARTICLE XV.

All articles seized, which were in the possession of the person to be surrendered at the time of his apprehension, shall, if the competent authority of the State applied to for extradition has ordered the delivery thereof, be given up when the extradition takes place; and this delivery shall extend not only to property of the accused, and to the stolen articles, but also to everything which may serve as a proof of the crime. If the extradition cannot be carried out in consequence of the flight or death of the individual who is claimed, the delivery of the above-mentioned objects shall take place nevertheless.

ARTICLE XVI.

Each of the Contracting Parties shall defray the expenses occasioned by the arrest within its territories, the detention, and the conveyance to its frontier, of the persons to be surrendered, in pursuance of this Treaty.

ARTICLE XVII.

The stipulations of the present Treaty shall be applicable to the Colonies and foreign possessions of Her Britannic Majesty.

The requisition for the surrender of a fugitive criminal who has taken refuge in any of such Colonies or foreign possessions shall be made to the Governor or chief authority of such Colony or possession by the chief Consular Officer of Austria-Hungary in such Colony or possession.

aussagen, und ebenso den Haftbefehlen und Strafurtheilen volle Beweiskraft beizulegen, vorausgesetzt dass diese Schriftstücke durch einen Richter, eine obrigkeitliche Person oder einen anderen Beamten dieses Staates unterzeichnet oder bescheinigt und durch einen beeidigten Zeugen oder durch Beidrückung des Amtssiegels des Justiz-oder eines anderen Staatsministers beglaubigt sind.

ARTIKEL XIV.

Wenn zur Auslieferung genügende Beweise nicht binnen zwei Monaten von dem Tage der Ergreifung des Flüchtigen an beigebracht werden, so ist der Ergriffene auf freien Fuss zu setzen.

ARTIKEL XV.

Alle in Beschlag genommenen Gegenstände, welche sich zur Zeit der Ergreifung im Besitze des Auszuliefernden befinden, sollen, wenn die zuständige Behörde des um die Auslieferung ersuchten Staates die Ausantwortung derselben angeordnet hat, bei Vollziehung der Auslieferung mit übergeben werden, und es soll sich diese Ueberlieferung nicht bloß auf die Habe des Verfolgten und auf die entfremdeten Gegenstände, sondern auf Alles erstrecken, was zum Beweise der strafbren Handlung dienen kann.

Wenn die Auslieferung, nachdem sie angeordnet worden ist, wegen Flucht oder Tod der reklamirten Individuums nicht mehr vollzogen werden kann, soll dennoch die Uebergabe der oberwähnten Gegenstände stattfinden.

ARTIKEL XVI.

Jeder der vertragenden Theile wird die Kosten tragen, welche durch die Festnahme und Anhaltung der auf Grund dieses Vertrages auszuliefernden Personen innerhalb seiner Staatsgebiete und deren Transport bis an seine Grenzen verursacht werden.

ARTIKEL XVII.

Die Bestimmungen des gegenwärtigen Vertrages sollen auf die Colonien und auswärtigen Besitzungen Ihrer Grossbritannischen Majestät Anwendung finden.

Der Antrag auf Auslieferung eines flüchtigen Verbrechers, welcher in einer dieser Colonien oder auswärtigen Besitzungen Zuflucht gefunden hat, soll an den Statthalter oder die oberste Behörde dieser Colonie oder Besitzungen durch den obersten Consular Beamten der oesterreichisch-ungarischen Monarchie in dieser Colonie oder Besitzung gerichtet werden.

bünteto" ítéleteknek teljes bizonyító erőt tulajdonítani: föltéve, hogy ezen iratok azon állam valamelyik bírójá, felsőségi személye vagy hivatalnoká által, irattak alá, és megeskettett tanu által, vagy az igazságügyminister vagy más államminister hivatali pecsétével hitelesítettek.

XIV. CZIKK.

Ha a menekült letartóztatásától számított két hó alatt a kiadás engedélyezésére szükségelt bizonyítékok nem közöltetnének: a letartóztatott egyén szabad lábra helyezendő".

XV. CZIKK.

Mindazon zár alá vett tárgyak, melyek a kiadandó egyén elfogatásakor ennek birtokában találtattak, ha azoknak kiadását a megkeresett állam illetékes hatóságai elrendelték, a büntetessel együtt szolgáltatandók ki, s ezen kiszolgáltatás nem csupán vádlott vagyonára s az általa el tulajdonított tárgyakra, hanem mind azon dolgokra kiterjed, a melyek a büntetendő cselekmény bebizonyítására szolgálhatnak.

Ha a már engedélyezett kiadás, a kiadatni kívánt egyén szökése vagy halála miatt nem is hajthatatnék végre, a fentérintett tárgyak mégis kiadandók.

XVI. CZIKK.

A "szerző"do" felek mindegyike viseli azon költségeket, melyek az ezen szerződés értelmében kiadandó egyéneknek a kiadó állam területén eszközölt elfogatása, letartóztatása és saját határáig való elszállítása által okoztatnak.

XVII. CZIKK.

A jelen szerződés határozatai érvényel bírnak O" Nagybritanniai Felségének gyarmataiban és kultartományjaiban is.

Az ezen gyarmatok vagy kultartományok valamelyikébe menekült büntettes kiadatása iránti megkeresés, az osztrák-magyar monarchia Consulságának az illető gyarmatban vagy kultartományban székelő legfőbb hivatalnoká által, a gyarmat vagy tartomány helytartójához, vagy legfőbb hatóságához intézendő

Such requisitions may be disposed of, subject always, as nearly as may be, to the provisions of this Treaty, by the said Governor or chief authority, who, however, shall be at liberty either to grant the surrender, or to refer the matter to his Government.

Her Britannic Majesty shall, however, be at liberty to make special arrangements in the British Colonies and foreign possessions for the surrender of Austro-Hungarian criminals, who may take refuge within such Colonies and foreign possessions, on the basis as nearly as may be, of the provisions of the present Treaty.

The requisition for the surrender of a fugitive criminal from any Colony or foreign possession of Her Britannic Majesty shall be governed by the rules laid down in the preceding Articles of the present Treaty.

ARTICLE XVIII.

The present Treaty shall come into force ten days after its publication, in conformity with the forms prescribed by the laws of the High Contracting Parties. It may be terminated by either of the High Contracting Parties, but shall remain in force for six months after notice has been given for its termination.

The Treaty shall be ratified, and the ratifications shall be exchanged at Vienna as soon as possible.

In witness whereof, the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed the same, and have affixed thereto the seal of their arms.

Done at Vienna, the 3rd day of December, in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three.

Ueber solche Anträge soll der gedachte Statthalter oder die gedachte oberste Behörde so viel als möglich nach den Bestimmungen des gegenwärtigen Vertrages vorgehen, jedoch soll denselben freistehen, entweder die Auslieferung zu bewilligen oder über den Fall an ihre Regierung zu berichten.

Ihre Grossbritannischen Majestät soll es jedoch freistehen, in den Britischen Colonien und auswärtigen Besitzungen über die Auslieferung von Staatsangehörigen der oesterreichisch-ungarischen Monarchie, welche innerhalb dieser Colonien und auswärtigen Besitzungen Zuflucht gefunden haben, auf möglichst gleicher Grundlage mit den Bestimmungen des gegenwärtigen Vertrages besondere Anordnungen zu treffen.

Anträge betreffend die Auslieferung von Verbrechern, welche aus einer Colonie oder auswärtigen Besitzung Ihrer Grossbritannischen Majestät geflüchtet sind, sollen nach den Bestimmungen der vorstehenden Artikel des gegenwärtigen Vertrages behandelt werden.

ARTIKEL XVIII.

Der gegenwärtige Vertrag soll zehn Tage nach seiner, in Gemässheit der durch die Gesetzgebung der hohen Vertragenden Theile vorgeschriebenen Formen erfolgten Veröffentlichung in Kraft treten. Der Vertrag kann von jedem der beiden hohen vertragenden Theile aufgekündigt werden, bleibt jedoch nach erfolgter Aufkündigung noch sechs Monate in Kraft.

Der Vertrag wird ratifizirt und die Ratifikationen werden so bald wie möglich, in Wien ausgewechselt werden.

Zu Urkund dessen haben die beiderseitigen Bevollmächtigten die gegenwärtige Uebereinkunft unterzeichnet und mit ihren Wappen untersiegelt.

So geschehen zu Wien, am 3ten December, im Jahre des Heils Eintausend achthundert siebenzig und drei.

(L.S.) ANDRASSY.

And whereas the ratifications of the said Treaty were exchanged at Vienna on the tenth instant :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, and in virtue of the authority committed to Her by the said recited Act, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the thirtieth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, the said Act shall apply in the case of the said Treaty with the Emperor of Austria.

Arthur Helps.

A helytartó vagy az illető legfőbb hatóság köteles ily megkeresésre lehetőleg a jelen szerződés határozatai szerint eljárni, szabadságában állandóan azonban a kiadást vagy eszközölni, vagy pedig afelmerítéséről saját kormányához jelentést tenni.

O Nagybritanniai Felségének mindezenáltal szabadságában áll, gyarmataiban és kultartományaiában az osztrák-magyar monarchia oda menekült alattvalóinak kiadását a jelen szerződés határozataival lehetőleg azonos alapon külön intézkedések által szabályozni.

Oly megkeresések elintézésénél, melyek O' Nagybritanniai Felségének valamely gyarmatából vagy kultartományából megmenekült bűntettek kiadására vonatkoznak, a jelen szerződés fenntebbi cikkeinek határozatai alkalmazandók.

XVIII. CZIKK.

A jelen szerződés tíz nappal a magas szerződőfelek törvényei által megszabott módon eszközölt kihirdetése után lép hatályba.

Ezen szerződés a magas szerződőfelek bármelyike által felmondása után még hat hónapig érvényben marad.

E szerződés megerősítendő, és a megerősítések a lehető legrövidebb idő alatt kölcsönösen Bécsben kicserélendőek.

Minek hiteül a jelen szerződést a mindkét rész teljhatalmazzottai aláírták és pecsétjükkel ellátták.

Lieutenant Edwin Henry Hayter Collen, of the Royal Artillery, Officiating 3rd Assistant Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department,—5th May 1873.

No. 509 of 1874.—With the view to obtain an immediate supply of Passed Hospital Apprentices for meeting the wants of the Subordinate Medical Department, His Excellency the Governor General in Council is pleased, as a very special case, to suspend the rule laid down in General Order by the Commander-in-Chief, No. 363 of 1870, and to authorize the assembly of special local Committees of Examination composed of not less than three Medical Officers for the purpose of examining all Hospital Apprentices who entered the service on or before the 17th April 1871, as shown in the Official Army List, who may be desirous of qualifying for promotion to the grade of Assistant Apothecary.

2. Committees will therefore assemble on the 28th of May 1874, and the examinations will be conducted, as heretofore, according to the rules laid down in Chapter 8 of the Medical Code of 1851. Statements of results in duplicate will be forwarded without delay by Presidents of Examining Committees direct to the Surgeon General, Indian Medical Service, Calcutta, who will report the names of successful candidates to the Adjutant General for publication, as usual, in the Orders of His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief.

3. To save time unsuccessful candidates may be ordered by local Military authorities to join the Medical College, Calcutta, in time to be present at the opening of the session of 1874-75, on the 15th of June next.

4. The Hospital Apprentices now undergoing instruction in the Medical College are allowed the option of sharing in the privilege conceded in this Order, and those who may desire it will be allowed to appear before the Fort William Committee of Examination. Unpassed candidates of the student apprentice class may be permitted to complete the period of study in the Medical College.

The 15th May 1874.

No. 510 of 1874.—Under the authority of the Right Hon'ble the Secretary of State for India, it is hereby notified that the following modification will be made in the provisions laid down in G. G. O. No. 123 of the 7th February 1873:—

Officers of the Royal Engineers of the Imperial Establishment, proceeding home on furlough

under the G. G. O. above referred to, will be allowed an advance of passage money or free passage in a troop ship (if proceeding in the trooping season), the advance to be refunded on receipt of furlough pay.

Deducting the passage money above mentioned, the balance of furlough pay will be paid in England on presentation of an order to return to India, conditionally on its refund if the order is not carried out.

The provisions of G. G. O. No. 123 of the 7th February 1873 will not apply to Royal Engineer Officers who arrived in India before the 1st July 1872.

No. 1105 P.—The subjoined Treaty between the Government of India and the Siamese Government concluded at Calcutta on the 14th January 1874, and duly ratified, is published for general information:—

Whereas the Government of India and the Siamese Government desire to conclude a Treaty for the purpose of promoting commercial intercourse between British Burmah and the adjoining territories of Chiangmai, Lakon, and Lampoonchi, belonging to Siam, and of preventing dacoity and other heinous crimes in the territories aforesaid: The high contracting parties have for this purpose named and appointed their Plenipotentiaries, that is to say; His Excellency the Right Honorable Thomas George Baring, Baron Northbrook of Stratton and a Baronet, Member of the Privy Council of Her Most Gracious Majesty the Queen of Great Britain and Ireland, Grand Master of the Most Exalted Order of the Star of India, Viceroy and Governor-General of India in Council, has on his part named and appointed Charles Umpherston Aitchison, Esquire, Companion of the Most Exalted Order of the Star of India; And His Majesty Somdetch Phra Paramindr Maha Chulalong Korn Bodindthong Dēpayā Maha Mongkut Purusaya Ratorerayara-wiwongse Varutmawongse Pribat Warakattriya Raja nikradom Chaduranta Porom Maha Chakrabantiray Sangkat Poromdham Mik Maharaja Dhiray Poromnat Pobit Phra Chula Chom Klaw Chow Yuhua, Supreme King of Siam, fifth of the present Royal Dynasty, who founded the Great City of Bangkok Amaratne Kosindr Mohindr Ayuthia, has on his part named and appointed Phya Charon Raja Maitri, Chief Judge of the Foreign Court, First Minister Plenipotentiary, Phya Samud Puranurax, Governor of the District of Samudr Prakar, Second Minister Plenipotentiary, and Phra Maha Muntri Sriongrax Samuha, Chief of the Department of the Royal Body-Guard of the Right, Adviser; And Edward Fowle, Esquire, Luang Siamanukroh, Consul for Siam at Rangoon, Adviser; And the aforesaid Plenipotentiaries having communicated to each other their respective full powers and found them to be in good and due form have agreed upon and concluded the following Articles:—

ARTICLE I.

His Majesty the King of Siam will cause the Prince of Chiangmai to establish and maintain Guard Stations under proper Officers on the Siamese bank of the Salween river, which forms the boundary of Chiangmai, belonging to Siam, and to maintain a sufficient Police force for the prevention of murder, robbery, dacoity, and other heinous crimes.

ARTICLE II.

If any persons, having committed dacoity in any of the territories of Chiangmai, Lakon, and Lampoonchi, cross the frontier into British territory, the British authorities and Police shall use their best endeavours to apprehend them. Such dacoits when apprehended shall, if Siamese subjects, be delivered over to the Siamese authorities at Chiangmai; if British subjects, they shall be dealt with by the British Officer in the Yoonzaleen District.

If any persons, having committed dacoity in British territory, cross the frontier into Chiangmai, Lakon, or Lampoonchi, the Siamese authorities and Police shall use their best endeavours to apprehend them. Such dacoits when apprehended shall, if British subjects, be delivered over to the British Officer in the Yoonzaleen District; if Siamese subjects, they shall be dealt with by the Siamese authorities at Chiangmai.

If any persons, whether provided with passports under Article IV. of this Treaty or not, commit dacoity in British or Siamese territory and are apprehended in the territory in which the dacoity was committed, they may be tried and punished by the local Courts without question as to their nationality.

Property plundered by dacoits, when recovered by the authorities on either side of the frontier, shall be delivered to its proper owners.

ARTICLE III.

The Siamese authorities in Chiangmai, Lakon, and Lampoonchi will afford due assistance and protection to British subjects carrying on trade or business in any of those territories, and the British Government in India will afford similar assistance and protection to Siamese subjects from Chiangmai, Lakon, and Lampoonchi carrying on trade or business in British territory.

ARTICLE IV.

British subjects entering Chiangmai, Lakon, and Lampoonchi from British Burmah must provide themselves with passports from the Chief Commissioner of British Burmah, or such Officer as he appoints in this behalf, stating their names, calling, and description. Such passports must be renewed for each journey and must be shown to the Siamese Officers at the frontier stations, or in the interior of Chiangmai, Lakon, and Lampoonchi on demand. Persons provided with passports and not carrying any articles prohibited under the Treaty concluded between Her Majesty the Queen of England and His Majesty the King of Siam on the eighteenth April one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and the supplementary agreement concluded between certain Royal Commissioners on the part of the Siamese Government and a Commissioner on the part of the British Government on the thirteenth May one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six shall be allowed to proceed on their journey without interference; persons unprovided with passports may be turned back to the frontier, but shall not be subjected to further interference.

ARTICLE V.

For the purpose of settling future disputes of a civil nature between British and Siamese subjects in Chiangmai, Lakon, and Lampoonchi, belonging to Siam, the following provisions are agreed to:—

- (a.)—His Majesty the King of Siam shall appoint proper persons to be Judges in Chiangmai with jurisdiction (1) to investigate and decide claims of British subjects against Siamese subjects in Chiangmai, Lakon, and Lampoonchi; (2) to investigate and determine claims of Siamese subjects against British subjects entering Chiangmai, Lakon, and Lampoonchi from British Burmah and having passports under Article IV. provided such British subjects consent to the jurisdiction of the Court;
- (b.)—Claims of Siamese subjects against British subjects entering Chiangmai, Lakon, and Lampoonchi from British Burmah and holding passports under Article IV., but not consenting to the jurisdiction of the Judges at Chiangmai appointed as aforesaid, shall be investigated and decided by the British Consul at Bangkok, or by the British Officer of the Yoonzaleen District;
- (c.)—Claims of Siamese subjects against British subjects entering Chiangmai, Lakon, and Lampoonchi from British Burmah, but not holding passports under Article IV., shall be investigated and decided by the ordinary local Courts.

ARTICLE VI.

Siamese subjects in British Burmah having claims against each other may apply to the Deputy Commissioner of the district in which they may happen to be to arbitrate between them. Such Deputy Commissioner shall use his good offices to effect an amicable settlement of the dispute, and if both parties have agreed to his arbitration, his award shall be final and binding on them. Similarly British subjects in Chiangmai, Lakon, and Lampoonchi having claims against each other may apply to any of the Judges at Chiangmai appointed under Article V., who shall use his good offices to effect an amicable settlement of the dispute, and if both parties have agreed to his arbitration, his award shall be final and binding on them.

ARTICLE VII.

Native Indian subjects of Her Britannic Majesty entering Chiangmai, Lakon, and Lampoonchi from British Burmah, who are not provided with passports under Article IV., shall be liable to the local Courts and the local law for offences committed by them in Siamese territories. Native Indian subjects as aforesaid, who are provided with passports under Article IV., shall be dealt with for such offences by the British Consul at Bangkok, or by the British Officer in the Yoonzaleen District, according to British law.

ARTICLE VIII.

The Siamese authorities in Chiangmai, Lakon, and Lampoonchi, and the British authorities in the Yoonzaleen District, will at all times use their best endeavours to procure and furnish to the Courts in the Yoonzaleen District and the Consular Court at Bangkok and to the Court at Chiangmai respectively such evidence and witnesses as may be required for the determination of Civil and Criminal cases pending in these Courts.

ARTICLE IX.

In cases tried by the British Officer of the Yoonzaleen District, or by the Judges at Chiangmai appointed under Article V., in which Siamese or British subjects may respectively be interested the Siamese or British authorities may respectively depute an Officer to attend and listen to the investigation of the case, and copies of the proceedings will be furnished gratis to the Siamese or British authorities respectively if required.

ARTICLE X.

British subjects provided with passports under Article IV., who desire to purchase, cut, or girdle timber in the forests of Chiangmai, Lakon, and Lampoonchi, must enter into a written agreement for a definite period with the owner of the forest. Such agreement must be executed in duplicate, each party retaining a copy and each copy must be sealed by one of the Siamese Judges at Chiangmai appointed under Article V. and by the Prince of Chiangmai. A copy of every such agreement shall be furnished by the Judge at Chiangmai to the British Officer in the Yoonzaleen District. Any British subject cutting or girdling trees in any forest without the consent of the owner of the forest obtained as aforesaid, or after the expiry of the agreement relating thereto, shall, if provided with a passport, be liable to pay such compensation to the owner of the forest as the British Consul at Bangkok or the Officer of the Yoonzaleen District may deem reasonable; if unprovided with a passport, he may be dealt with by the local Courts according to the law of the country.

ARTICLE XI.

The Judges at Chiangmai appointed under Article V., and the Prince of Chiangmai, shall endeavour to prevent owners of forests from executing agreements with more than one party for the same timber or forest, and to prevent any person from improperly marking or effacing the marks on timber which has been lawfully cut or marked by another person, and shall give such facilities as are in their power to purchasers and fellers of timber to identify their property. If the owners of forests prohibit the cutting, girdling, or removing of timber under agreements duly executed in accordance with Article X., the Judges at Chiangmai appointed under Article V., and the Prince of Chiangmai, shall enforce the agreements, and the owners of such forests acting as aforesaid shall be liable to pay such compensation to the persons with whom they have entered into such agreements as the Judges at Chiangmai appointed as aforesaid may deem reasonable.

ARTICLE XII.

British subjects entering Siamese territory from British Burmah must, according to custom and the regulations of the country, pay the duties lawfully prescribed on goods liable to such duty.

Siamese subjects entering British territory must, according to the regulations of the British Government, pay the duties lawfully prescribed on goods liable to such duty.

ARTICLE XIII.

The British Officer of the Yoonzaleen District may, subject to the conditions of this Treaty, exercise all or any of the powers that may be exercised by a British Consul under the Treaty concluded between Her Majesty the Queen of England and His Majesty the King of Siam on the eighteenth

April one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and the supplementary agreement concluded between certain Royal Commissioners on the part of the Siamese Government and a Commissioner on the part of the British Government on the thirteenth May one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six.

ARTICLE XIV.

Except as and to the extent herein specially provided, nothing in this Treaty shall be taken to affect the provisions of any Treaty or other agreement now in force between the British and Siamese Governments.

ARTICLE XV.

After the lapse of seven years from the date on which this Treaty shall come into force and on twelve months' notice given by either party this Treaty shall be subject to revision by Commissioners appointed on both sides for this purpose, who shall be empowered to decide on and adopt such amendments as experience shall prove to be desirable.

ARTICLE XVI.

This Treaty has been executed in English and Siamese, both versions having the same meaning, but as the British Plenipotentiary has no knowledge of the Siamese language it is hereby agreed that in the event of any question of construction arising on this Treaty, the English text shall be accepted as conveying in every respect its true meaning and intention.

ARTICLE XVII.

The ratification of this Treaty by His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor-General of India having been communicated to the Siamese Plenipotentiaries, this Treaty shall be ratified by His Majesty the King of Siam, and such ratification shall be transmitted to the Secretary to the Government of India in the Foreign Department at Calcutta within four months or sooner if possible.

The Treaty having been so ratified shall come into force on the first January one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five Anno Domini, corresponding with the first day of the third Siamese moon in the year of Choh one thousand two hundred and thirty-six of the Siamese era, or on such earlier date as may be separately agreed upon.

In witness whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed in duplicate in English and Siamese the present Treaty and have affixed thereto their respective Seals.

Done at Calcutta this fourteenth day of January in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four of the Christian era corresponding to the twelfth day of the second month of the twelfth waning moon of the year of Raka one thousand two hundred and thirty-five of the Siamese era.
